

MEET OUR FOUNDER

Alberto Timpauer, President

Flight Path Vectors, LLC & FPV Foundation

Al was born and raised in Canada. He always dreamed of traveling and serving others. He served in the Canadian Armed Forces in the Army. After a very long wait, 13 years, Al immigrated to the United States of America. He went on to serve in United States Army as a Combat Medic and then to retire as an Infantry Platoon Sergeant. The move to aviation was a natural transition. Al graduated from Embry-Riddle Aeronautical University. He has worked in many aeronautical capacities: as a Gold Seal Flight Instructor, Air Cargo

Captain, Professional Standards Mediator, Critical Incident Response Team Member, Hiring Team Member, Mentorship Program Director, and Regional Airline Captain. Several years ago, Al had the opportunity to move on to his dream airline and fly the mighty Boeing 737. Al's desire to serve and mentor others has led to the creation of Flight Path Vectors. Al is the President of FPV Foundation and Flight Path Vectors, LLC. Al is fluent in English and French.

MEET OUR FOUNDER

Brock Booher, Vice President

Flight Path Vectors & FPV Foundation

Brock grew up on a farm in Kentucky, the fourth of ten children. One day while he was out working in the fields in the hot summer sun, a low-flying military jet came screaming overhead, barely missing the trees and disappearing like a shooting star. Right then he decided that flying looked like more fun than farming. He left the farm in pursuit of his dream, graduated from Brigham Young University, and headed off to pilot training in the U.S. Air Force where he A10s and T37s. After his Air Force service, he transitioned to commercial airline flying in the Boeing 737 and has more than 16,000 hours of flying time. His experience and positions include Instructor Pilot, Ground School Instructor, Simulator Instructor, Curriculum Developer, Check Pilot and Standards Check Pilot. He has taught courses on Crew Resource Management, Risk and Resource Management, time management, leadership, instructor/evaluator skills, and communication. He has published multiple articles, essays, and books. He is fluent in English and Spanish.

- Brigham Young University – Bachelor of Science, Geography, 1988
- Veteran U.S. Air Force – Captain; A-10 & T-37 Instructor Pilot
- Captain – Major U.S. Airline
- FAA Designated Check Pilot
- FAA Designated Standards Check Pilot

MEET OUR FOUNDER

Philip Green, Secretary & Treasurer

Flight Path Vectors & FPV Foundation

Phil was raised in Mesa, Arizona. He is the oldest of seven children. Growing up, he lived underneath the flight path of Phoenix Sky Harbor Airport. Watching commercial airliners fly into the airport every afternoon he gained an interest and desire to pursue aviation. After graduating from high school, he attended Arizona State University where he earned his bachelor's degree. He then enrolled in a flight school located in New Mexico to obtain his ratings. He has flown commercially for 17 years and has worked as a pilot at three different airlines. His experience includes Professional Standards Mediator, Pilot Hiring Team Member, Pilot Mentor, Captain, and Check Airman. Phil has a passion for aviation and helping people achieve their dream jobs of becoming commercial airline pilots. Phil is a current First Officer at a major airline where he flies the Boeing 737. He has been instrumental to the success of Flight Path Vectors. Phil is fluent in English and Russian.
